

FUTURE DAZE

Future Daze sole member is the brilliantly talented Ian Price, a creator and innovator of exciting high quality electronic music and eye-catching visuals. Originally from Liverpool (England UK) and now based in the heart of the UK. The 2008 album MIXED SYNTHETIC MESSAGES is available from the Future Daze website - Future Daze products and CDBaby Future Daze on CDBaby

You will also find some great electronic gems from Future Daze on iTunes and other digital download sites. iINNOVATION > iINSPIRATION > iCREATIVITY > iORIGINALITY > iLOGICIAN > iIMAGINATION > iEXPRESSION I like to mix various styles of electronic music, from electro to ambient, industrial soundscapes and beyond. Like everyone we all have different moods, and so does my music. I also create more ambient dark experimental work as SCHOOL OF AMBIENCE - School Of Ambience website

Ian also produce a fantastic podcast show dedicated to all forms of electronic music. The show is called ROBO CAST RADIO. You can find the shows here Robo Cast Radio on Podomatic and there is also a fab new website - Robo Cast Radio official website
